1° Create a New Post with the WordPress Admin Panel

Let's say you want to write your first blog post using WordPress. Here's how the WordPress admin area helps you do that:

First, hover over the Entries menu item to display a set of submenu items. Then, you would click the Add New button:

This opens the Add New Post screen where you can enter a title, write your post in the text editor, upload images, assign categories, and more:

There are two differents systems .

Classic interface : you have to use the toolbar and addmedia button to insert images
